

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

Thursday 11 December 2014

University brings more than $23

The University of Tasmania has consolidated its position research securing $23.88 million in Commonwealth funding

Transfinition in the later of t coastal water quality and marine species.

Assemble of the Ministration of Society of the Company of the Comp

the congratulated to write a resolution of the congratulated to remain the congratulated the congratul

"The University of Tasmania has an international reputation for excellence in applied," known around the world as amonast the very best places to study, teach and research."
"","

Teat processed the Machie Aido versity, up, the of secression rules the best Processe through the $142.5 million NESP, has a broad scope.

"These hubs are funded by the Commonwealth to ensure decisions about formation and indicate with a second control of the mineral second control of the cont

"It is conclisto over inattivitation and sur necelectant too populator turne to too to the interest vec

The Marine Rindwastly Hub will heiten the land the second marine species and ecosystems, support national approaches to marine