Salmon experts meet to plan ambitious 2018 Global Salmon Symposium

International and locally-based salmon experts today gathered in Hobart to plan the 2018 Global Salmon Symposium. The symposium will be held in Hobart from 12-14 December 2018. The symposium is a key event in the 2018 Global Salmon Symposium series, which is a global initiative to bring together experts from around the world to discuss the latest research and developments in salmon science and management. The symposium will be held in Hobart, Tasmania, Australia, and will feature a series of presentations, workshops, and networking opportunities.
