

data e.g. more than 500 people searched for koalas on one day in South Australia, recording 1500 sightings in a matter of 5 days. Queensland's Great Barrier Reef has been declared a World Heritage site. The Great Barrier Reef is the largest coral reef system in the world, stretching for 2,300 kilometres off the coast of Queensland, Australia.

Providing new information for government decision-